

A new teacher at St. Joseph's Catholic High School

By Shelby-Marie Miller
Wednesday October 3, 2018

Mrs. Laura Hevia is a new teacher that teaches the subjects French and religion at St. Joseph's Catholic High School in Barrie, Ontario. She has been teaching for fourteen years.

She is from Red Lake, Ontario. Her dad had a teaching job there and would do that in the day and then would mine in the night. When she was three, she moved to Barrie.

She went to Frère André French elementary school right by St. Joseph's Catholic High School, and then went to this high school. She said, "I went to this school and it has a special place in my heart."

She said she chose the Catholic school board because it challenges young people to find the meaning and value of togetherness and to strive to live their lives with the gospel values.

Mrs. Laura Hevia
photo taken by Shelby-Marie Miller